Stephen,

First, thank you for the cheesecake recipe. I made it for my dad and he LOVED it!

Next, BJ and I discussed the topic for the nutrition conference. We would like a combination of strategic planning, program development and partnership development, if that is possible. I have 1-1.5 hours for your presentation. How much time do you think you will need? The cost of your fees have been approved.

Thanks

Jill

Jill,

It was a pleasure speaking with you regarding the Health & Nutrition Conference next May. Attached is a summary of my presentation in October at the PASC Conference. Or Click Here for a link to the whole presentation, then click on Seven Secrets Download. It would sound like you want a presentation on programs, partnerships and publicity. These three topics are very popular among senior center managers and organizers.

Costs:

Tolls, Gas & Mileage: $246

Professional Fees: $750 (essentially it's a day and a half of work, and I'm giving a 50% discount)

Over Night Stay: Whatever your event rate is

I understand if this is too much but it's just the distance involved and the time I have to take off working on other projects.

And here is a link to the cheesecake recipe I mentioned. Tyler Florence calls for this to be made into cheesecake bars, but I skip the part about making my own graham cracker crust and just bake the whole thing in a Keebler graham cracker pie crust. It comes out so delicious!

Kindest regards,

Stephen Forbus
